

Glossary terms from module 2

Terms and definitions from Course 2 Module 2

Architecture: A framework that defines the design of a technical solution

Data catalog: A centralized inventory of an organization's data assets

Data governance: A process for ensuring the formal management of a company's data

Data ingestion: The process of obtaining, importing, and processing data for later use or storage

Data lake: A database system that stores large amounts of raw data in its original format until it's needed

Denormalized data: Stores repeated information in one or more tables

Master data management (MDM): A discipline and framework for managing and maintaining critical data assets in order to achieve a single, consistent view of data across the organization

Metadata: Data about data

Normalized data: Organizes related fields into different tables, and maintains defined relationships between columns in these different tables